Buddhist Summit

Uniting Buddhist leaders for a Brilliant Future

The conference held at the adjacent area of the Royal Grand Hall of Buddhism

Nalanda Mahavihara

The Supreme Buddhist Vihara in Honor of H.R.H. Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn of Thailand

The Supreme Buddhist Vihara represents the earnest wish of all Buddhists for over 800 years

Overcoming differences in tradition, supreme Buddhist leaders work together

Roundtable meeting discussing the future of Buddhism

Supreme Buddhist leaders gathering and talking

Prayers are offered with one heart for world peace through Buddhism

The double-arched stone bridge with elaborate carvings

Magnificent stone buildings for learning and practicing Buddhism

The assembly hall accommodates 400 seats

Buddhist Library I stores precious sutras and books

The Sattapanniguha Auditorium beyond the flags of the member countries

The Buddhist Summit Headquarters

https://www.buddhist-summit.com/eng/　5-1-2 Motomachi-dori, Chuo-ku, Kobe, Hyogo Pref., Japan